IMI THE FACTS:

What is the IMI and why join?

The IMI is the motor industry's professional association. Being a member means you get careers support, up-to-date industry knowledge and recognition. By joining you are entitled to use letters after your name – proving you are a professional, serious about your career and giving you a competitive edge in the jobs market.

Who can apply?

Students (aged 16 and above) working towards a motor industry qualification either at a UK college or private training provider.

Are there levels of membership?

Yes, you may be eligible for a higher grade of membership if you already have a level 2 qualification and are working towards a higher level. So, as you qualify and gain experience, you can move up the various levels of IMI membership.

To find out more about IMI membership visit www.motor.org.uk or call us on 01992 511521

* Endsleigh Insurance Services

Endsleigh is the only insurance provider recommended by NUS. Competitive insurance for students in the UK. For more information about car insurance, student possessions and travel cover visit www.endsleigh.co.uk or call 0800 028 3571.

ENDSLEIGH
Independent insurance for career people

NUS THE FACTS:

What is the NUS Associate Card?

It proves that you're a student and gives you automatic access to a huge range of student discounts. Look out for signs advertising student discounts in shops, cinemas, restaurants and museums. You might be surprised by how much money you save! NB: The NUS Associate Card is not a proof of age card.

How do I get one?

Easy, you need to join the IMI, simply complete the attached joint IMI membership and NUS application form and return to the IMI FREEPOST address.

How long will it last?

It starts as soon as you get it and will run to 30th September 2008. So get in quick. The sooner you apply the sooner you can start saving.

To find out more about NUS and for a full list of exclusive discounts visit www.nusonline.co.uk/associate OR contact the Associate Card hotline on 0845 217 7714 OR email nusassociatecard@ddcos.com
